

International Body Psychotherapy Journal

Editorial Board

Jacqueline A. Carleton, PhD

Editor, International Body Psychotherapy Journal: The Art and Science of Somatic Praxis

Jacqueline A. Carleton, Ph.D. has been on the Board of Directors of the USABP since 1998, and is the founding editor of the USA Body Psychotherapy Journal. She has practiced and taught both body psychotherapy and psychodynamic psychotherapy for over 35 years. Most recently, she has integrated Somatic Experiencing into her research, teaching, and private practice. She was educated at Smith College, MIT, and Columbia University.

Robyn Burns

USABP Executive Director/Production Manager

Robyn Burns, MA A jack-of-all-trades, Robyn has been involved in all aspects of the daily business of the USABP for the past twelve years providing support for the various operational arms of the organization, including the Journal, conference, web maintenance, and membership. She enjoys the variance of interactions and people that come from working with the organization. She lives and works in Houston, Texas.

Nancy Eichhorn

Nancy Elizabeth Eichhorn, MA, M.Ed, MA is a writer, editor, investigative journalist, and a credentialed educator with degrees in clinical psychology, education and creative nonfiction writing. She sidelines as a doctoral student in embodiment studies at The Chicago School for Professional Psychology.

Lidy Evertsen

EABP Board of directors, President.

Lidy Evertsen has served on the EABP board since 2008, first as representative for the FORUM of Body Psychotherapy Organisations, then as General Secretary and interim Treasurer. Since October 2011 she has been the president of the EABP. Lidy is a Unitive and Bodydynamic practitioner and a Bodydynamic trauma therapist in her private practice in Amsterdam. Besides she is manager and trainer for Bodydynamic International also in Amsterdam. Lidy has a special interest in working with clients with PTSD and in working with dissociated personality parts. Other special themes are relational therapy and contact.

Christine Hayes

EABP Secretariat

Christine Hayes, BA is an independent business communicator, writing for corporate, HR and internal communication departments of medium and large global companies. She also edits texts in English, for companies and individuals. Her skills in writing for international audiences were gained in the marketing communications departments of several global companies such as Gruner + Jahr (in Hamburg), Apple (in Paris), and Citibank Personal Banking (in Amsterdam). She has studied the Diamond Approach for over 12 years, and is currently a student in the DHAT seminary.

Michael C. Heller

EABP Ethics Committee, Journal Editor

Michael C. Heller, Ph.D. has served in the EABP as Vice President, Chairman of the Ethical and Scientific committees, and member of its board from 1995 to 2001. He is presently honorary member of the EABP, and is a member of its ethical committee. Since 1976, he has followed a double career in body psychotherapy, and in experimental studies of nonverbal communication. From 1988 to 1999, he was head of the Laboratory of Affects & Communication (LAC) in the Geneva University Psychiatric Institutions. He is psychotherapist, supervisor, trainer, member of editing teams for several journals, gives conferences and publishes articles and books. His most recent work is Body Psychotherapy: History, Concepts, and Methods (W.W. Norton). He trained in Piagetian developmental and cognitive psychology in Geneva, where he was also trained in Biodynamic Psychology by Gerda Boyesen and her team.

Elizabeth Marshall

Elizabeth Marshall, originally from England, now lives and works in Berlin, Germany. She originally studied Economics at Leeds University, but broke off her studies to travel overland to India, the so called “Morgenlandfahrt”. After a nomadic existence she became a student of Zen Master Taisen Deshimaru Roshi in Paris and practised Zazen intensively for 10 years. During this time she trained as a nurse and also as a Shiatsu Practitioner. Later she trained in Primal Integration Therapy and subsequently in Body Psychotherapy with Malcolm and Katherine Brown (Organismic Psychotherapy). She has been a registered Healing Practitioner in private practice for Body Psychotherapy and Couples Therapy for over 20 years. Special interests are the different forms of massage and energy work, transpersonal psychology and psychotherapy, couples and sexual therapy. Meditation has always been an important part of daily life.

She is the reserve member for the EABP Ethics Committee and has published interviews in the EABP Newsletter.

Katy Swafford

Board of Directors, President

Katy Swafford, Ph.D. returns to the USABP Board of Directors after serving from 2000-2008. She has served on the Academic Council, the Lifetime Achievement Committee, the Research Committee, the Ethic's Committee, the Membership Committee, and the Board Self-Review Committee. She has a private practice and teaches at St. Edwards University in Austin, Texas. Term ends June 2013.

Jill van der Aa

EABP Board of directors, General Secretary/Vice President

Jill van der Aa BA, Dip. Ed. worked as the EABP Secretariat from 2001-2010 and organized the EABP Congresses at Egmond aan Zee (2001) and Askov (2006). She has a background as a teacher, actress and theatre director, organizer of seminars and trainings and trained in Core Energetics with Bill Solomon and in Bodydynamic Trauma work with Erik Jarlmaes. She is now serving on the Board of Directors and is a member of the Publications Committee, the IBPJ Editorial Committee and the Science Committee.