

Body Psychotherapy Student Final Paper Award

Conditions of Entry 2015-2016

The award will be given to the best final paper of a student of body psychotherapy.

- The paper must be a substantive piece of original written work. It should have not been published anywhere previously, though it may have been submitted as a part of the student's training course requirements (or adapted from such).
- Student should have been studying at a training Institute that is an organizational member of EABP.
- The paper must not have been written more than 18 months before its submission.
- The paper should have a minimum of 5000 words and a maximum of 7500 words and it should also include an abstract translated into English of between 300 and 500 words. 3-5 keywords should be given.
- It must have a theoretical section and it must also have a practical application.
- It should be submitted as an electronic file in Microsoft Word or in PDF format. Font size 12pt single-spaced. The student is responsible for delivering this on time, and in the correct format, and also for retaining a copy.
- All quotations must be clearly referenced: references should be given in a regular format. We recommend APA formatting for both in-text citations and reference list. Please visit the following website for examples pertaining to books, journal articles, on-line citations, and other forms of reference, as well as how to cite within the text.

- Case studies/research must have been conducted according to the EABP Ethical Guidelines.
- The EABP has the right to publish the English language abstracts of all prize submissions. Authors agree to have their paper included for possible submission to the International Body Psychotherapy Journal subject to the normal conditions for Journal entries.

- Students retain all copyright and the right to publish elsewhere as well but must inform the EABP first.
- The jury will be composed of at least three people – at least one of which is elected by the FORUM. A trainer of the students cannot be a member of the jury.
- The jury's decision is final. Any specific complaints should be made to the EABP Board of Directors in writing.
- Student authors will all receive clear written feedback from the jury about their thesis, sometime after their submission has been accepted and before the actual award.
- EABP Board of Directors retains the right to adapt these conditions according to the circumstances, though not to favour or disparage any one particular entry.
